

Request for Evidence

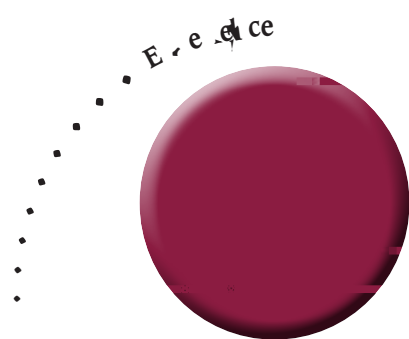

On 12/17/2024, the Department of Education received a request for evidence from the Office of the Inspector General regarding the implementation of the 2021-2022 school year. The request for evidence was received on 12/17/2024.

There are many factors to consider:

- 1. The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.
- 2. The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.
- 3. The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.
- 4. The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.

The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025. The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.

- The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.
- The Department of Education is currently reviewing the request for evidence and will provide a response to the Office of the Inspector General by January 24, 2025.

