

Arbor Counseling Center has provided personal and comprehensive counseling services to the community for over 30 years. During this time you have trusted us with your families, marriages, personal stories and safety. We take your trust seriously, which is why we have decided to suspend in-person counseling services ety. We tak